ARRIVAL IN THE PINK CITY

Forts, Palaces & The Spirit of Royalty

Welcome to Jaipur, the capital of Rajasthan and India's first planned city. Founded in 1727 by Maharaja Sawai Jai Singh II, this city is a living museum of Rajput architecture and culture.

On Day 1, you will be received at the airport or railway station and transferred to your hotel. By evening, explore the Pink City area including the iconic Statue Circle, the serene Birla Mandir (Laxmi Narayan Temple), and the vibrant Jawahar Kala Kendra.

Day 2 is packed with grandeur: Begin at Amer Fort, marveling at the Sheesh Mahal. Visit the floating Jal Mahal, the royal City Palace, the astronomical wonder Jantar Mantar, and the iconic Hawa Mahal. End your day with a breathtaking sunset from Nahargarh Fort and the magical Sound & Light Show at Amber Fort.

INTO THE WILD

Where the Tiger Roams Free

Ranthambore National Park is one of India's finest tiger reserves and the best among all tiger reserves in the country. Spread over 392 sq km, it is a paradise for wildlife enthusiasts.

After breakfast, transfer to Ranthambore and check into your hotel. The highlight of the day is the thrilling Canter Safari ride through the dense jungle. Keep your cameras ready as you might spot the majestic Royal Bengal Tiger, along with leopards, sloth bears, crocodiles, and over 300 species of birds.

The park is also home to the historic Ranthambore Fort, a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

FROM VALOR TO ROMANCE

Chittaurgarh's Bravery to Udaipur's Serenity

Enroute to Udaipur, visit the magnificent Chittaurgarh Fort — India's largest fort and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. This fortress stands as a testament to Rajput bravery, with tales of Rani Padmini and Maharana Pratap echoing through its grand gates and palaces.

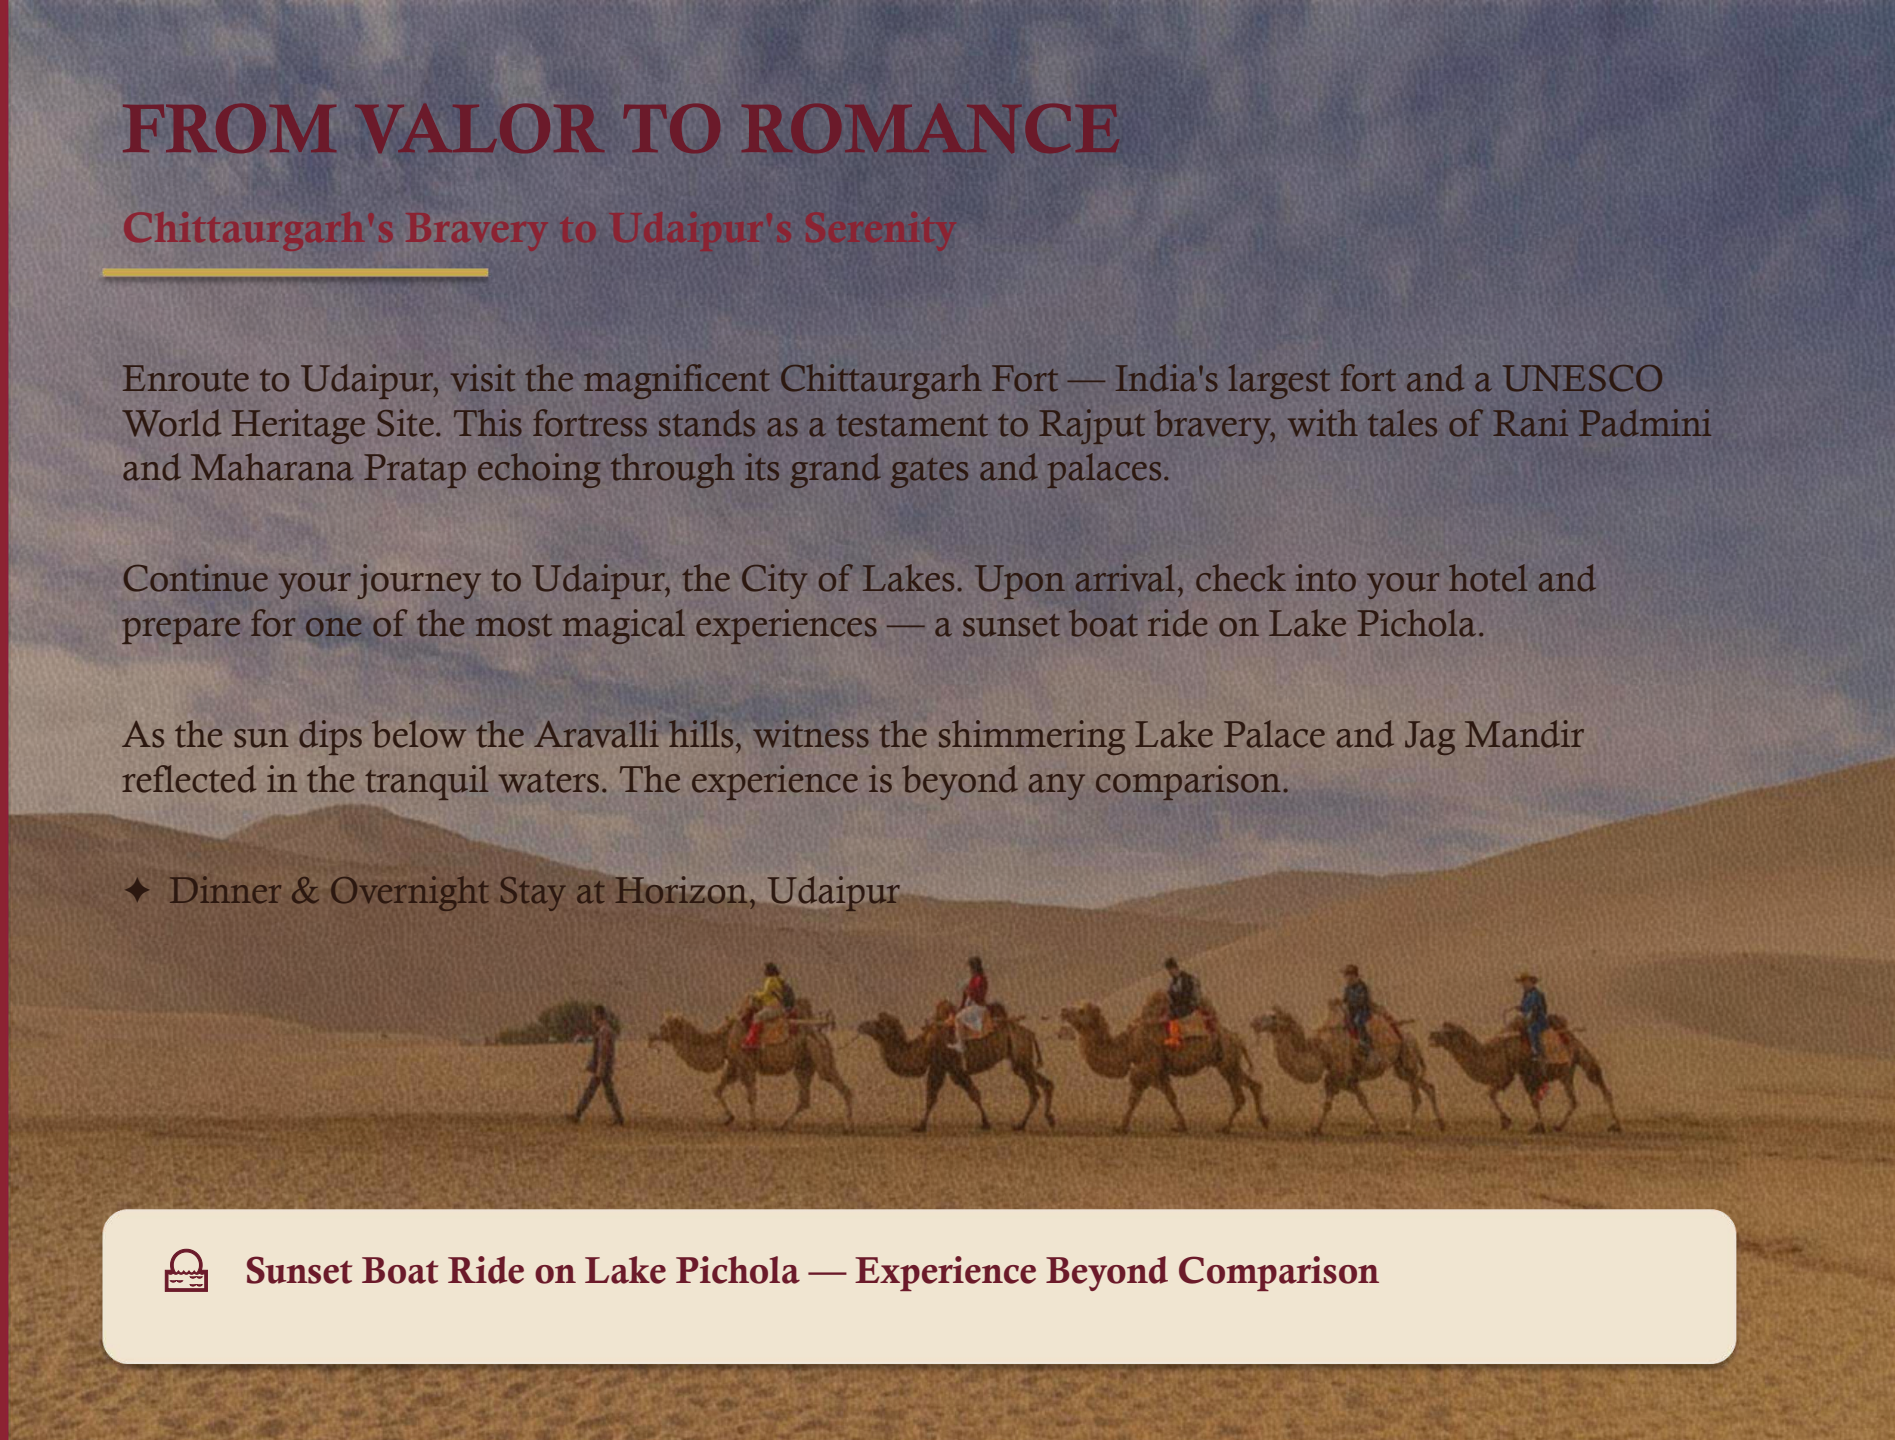

Continue your journey to Udaipur, the City of Lakes. Upon arrival, check into your hotel and prepare for one of the most magical experiences — a sunset boat ride on Lake Pichola.

As the sun dips below the Aravalli hills, witness the shimmering Lake Palace and Jag Mandir reflected in the tranquil waters. The experience is beyond any comparison.

CITY OF LAKES & PALACES

The Venice of the East

Udaipur is often called the most romantic city in India. Founded in 1559 by Maharana Udai Singh II, it is a city of shimmering lakes, marble palaces, and lush gardens.

Begin your day at the grand City Palace — a complex of 11 palaces showcasing a blend of Rajasthani and Mughal architecture. Visit Bagore Ki Haveli, a museum of royal artifacts, and the magnificent Jagdish Temple with its Indo-Aryan architecture.

Pay homage at Pratap Smarak, the memorial to the legendary Maharana Pratap. Stroll through Saheliyon Ki Bari — the Garden of Maidens, with its lotus pools and marble pavilions. End at Bhartiya Lok Kala Mandal, a folk art museum celebrating Rajasthan's rich cultural heritage.

JOURNEY TO THE GOLDEN CITY

Where Sandstone Meets the Sky

After breakfast, embark on a scenic journey to Jaisalmer — the Golden City of Rajasthan. Located in the heart of the Thar Desert, this city rises like a mirage from the golden sands, its sandstone buildings glowing in the desert sun.

Upon arrival, check into your hotel and relax. In the evening, visit the serene Gadisar Lake, an artificial reservoir built in the 14th century. The lake is surrounded by temples, ghats, and cenotaphs, creating a picturesque setting.

Next, visit Vyas Chhatri — a cluster of royal cenotaphs dedicated to the sage Vyas. These beautifully carved sandstone structures offer a stunning view of the Jaisalmer Fort at sunset.

ARABIAN NIGHTS IN THE DESERT

A Night Under the Stars

Begin with a half-day sightseeing tour of Jaisalmer Fort — the only living fort in India where one-fourth of the city's population still resides. Explore ancient temples and the ornate havelis with intricate latticework and jharokhas.

By evening, transfer to the Sam Sand Dunes for a unique desert experience. Ride a camel into the sunset as the golden sands stretch endlessly. The changing hues of the desert sky create a photographer's paradise.

As night falls, settle into your Swiss tent at Sultan Camp. Enjoy a traditional Rajasthani dinner under a canopy of stars, accompanied by a cultural program featuring folk music, Kalbeliya dance, and the haunting melodies of Manganiyar musicians. This is an experience truly beyond comparison — like the Arabian Nights come to life.

THE BLUE CITY'S MAJESTY

Where the Sky Meets the Fort

Welcome to Jodhpur, the Blue City of Rajasthan. Upon arrival, check into your hotel and soon after, climb up the majestic Mehrangarh Fort — one of the largest forts in India, perched 400 feet above the city on a rocky hill.

Explore every nook and corner of this magnificent fortress, which houses palaces, courtyards, and a museum with an exquisite collection of palanquins, howdahs, royal cradles, and weapons. The fort's walls bear the scars of cannonball attacks from Jaipur's armies, a testament to its storied past.

Visit the serene Jaswant Thada — a white marble cenotaph built in memory of Maharaja Jaswant Singh II. End your day at the Umaid Bhawan Palace Museum, part of one of the world's largest private residences, showcasing the royal family's vintage cars and memorabilia.

SACRED SOJOURN

Where Faith Transcends Boundaries

Drive to Jaipur, enroute visiting Ajmer and Pushkar — both major religious centers for Muslim and Hindu pilgrims. This day is a spiritual journey that bridges faiths and cultures.

In Ajmer, visit the revered Ajmer Sharif Dargah — the tomb of Sufi saint Khwaja Moinuddin Chishti. This shrine attracts millions of devotees from all faiths, embodying the spirit of unity and devotion.

Continue to Pushkar, one of the oldest cities in India and home to the sacred Pushkar Lake. Visit the Brahma Temple — one of the very few temples in the world dedicated to Lord Brahma, the creator. The holy lake is believed to have been created by a lotus flower dropped from Brahma's hand.

Later, proceed to Jaipur and check into your hotel for a restful night before departure.
